

6. (Thou art he) who at once supplies both heaven and earth with viands ; thou art the giver of all things to those who praise thee.

7. This vigorous Soma, while being purified,
murmurs in the pitchers ; thou art the giver
of all things to those who^f praise thee.

XIX. (XIX.)

Rishi, deity and metre as before.

1. * Whatever wonderful glorious wealth there be Varga ix.

in heaven or in earth, do thou, Soma, being
purified,
bring it to us,

8. Thou, Soma and INDKA, are the lords of all,
the lords of cattle, — do ye[?] the rulers, prosper our rites.

9. The showerer (of benefits) being purified
amongst men (lies) murmuring upon the sacred grass, — green-tinted he sits down in his proper place.

10. The mothers of the male calf,² which are sucked by him, long to cherish the bull with their strength.

11. The purified Soma has implanted many^s a germ

¹ Sarna Yeda, II. 3. 2. 13. 1, 3. 2.

- Sayana explains " the mothers of the calf" as the Tasativaii •water which is mixed with the Soma. flight the verse metia ^{k{} the sacred rites, the mothers of the male calf, long for the full-grawa vigour of the bull" ?

³ So Sayan",, but Iwvif is more probably ac interrogative particle.